

Overview: Chalet.Net is a web hosting platform that utilizes the tried-and-true LAMP architecture for online web sites, allowing easy navigation through a web browser using a Hypertext Transfer Protocol (HTTP). Unlike many hosting platforms, Chalet.Net allows users to host their websites for free and without any platform-specific technical knowledge. Their provided high-speed servers do not require an account for any particular type of content. With Chalet.Net, users benefit from a fully customizable hosting environment which makes it possible to achieve a successful website even on the most basic of web hosts. The intuitive web site builder and administration tools allow users to easily create, deploy and manage a website without having to be a technical wizard. To learn more, refer to the Manual and Articles page. Chalet.Net comes with a user-friendly FTP client that allows to upload files, transfer media and configure file servers. It features a powerful folder manager, an advanced RSS feed aggregator and a powerful MIME mail formatter to build a consistent and reliable media-rich emails. Most importantly, Chalet.Net comes with an integrated Domain Name System (DNS) server that is customized with all known top-level domain names (TLDs). This is especially helpful for users who live in countries where their server is not reachable when using a normal Internet DNS service. For a premium package, the package offered by Chalet.Net goes by the name IP Pack. This package is aimed at subscribers that wish to deploy an advanced DNS configuration with different Proxy Record scripts. Optional features include:- Domain Privacy, which protects the DNS configuration from unauthorized view.- Customer support by email.- Hosting of Email by POP3 and IMAP4 servers.IMPORTANT INFORMATION: Please note that all the versions of IP Pack are free for the first month and are available until June 1, 2014. After the first month, the packages become charged. The new price is the same of the free package for the same period. Overview: Beitepr-0.4.0 Release Notes This is a point release of Beitepr 0.4.0.
