Feel free to give your feedback here: with respect to the parties to the agreement before the agreement is executed. The trial court's conclusions are supported by the record and will not be disturbed on appeal. Hagen v. A-1 Paving Co., Inc. (1980), Ind. App., 407 N.E.2d 949. In summary, this court finds no error in the trial court's judgment with respect to liability and damage. We hold that the statute of limitations does not bar this action, but also find that there was no evidence in the record to support the trial court's conclusion that there was a novation. We therefore must reverse the judgment on this issue. The judgment of the trial court is affirmed in part, reversed in part, and remanded for proceedings consistent with this opinion. RATLIFF, C.J., and PIVARNIK,
