The national team will once again be led by Badminton Ireland National Coach Donal Henry who will lead the squad in the European Championships from July 15-29, 2017. Badminton Ireland CEO Niall Sweeney said, "We are delighted to be in a position to once again send a strong and competitive Irish Badminton Team to compete in the European Badminton Championships. "The team will be led by National Coaching Team Member Donal Henry who was appointed as Irish Men's National Team Captain for the 2016 European Championships. "I am confident that the team will bring home the silver medal this year and would hope to have a positive influence on Irish Badminton at the European Championships. "Ireland now has one of the strongest national badminton teams in the world with strong international rankings," he added. "We're delighted that the Irish Badminton Team will once again compete alongside some of the best European badminton squads and a number of individual Irish players who have competed at the European Championships in recent years," he added. Last year, Ireland took part in European Championships for the first time and finished in the top four for the first time in its history. India were the victors in the tournament and Ireland finished in joint fifth place with Great Britain. Ireland won two silver medals, including a gold by James O'Donoghue. Fourteen teams will compete for the European Bad
