How to get around the limits to tax the rich: There is no escape from the logic of taxation. It extends to the wealthy, and it is hard to think of a practice in our economic history that has been more harmful and discouraging than the practice of taxing the rich. The trend of the past century is toward greater social equality, and this is true not just for the United States but throughout the world. The American system of taxation also is full of flaws, but its one virtue is that it is hard on the rich. There is no escape from the logic of taxation. ...
