Archon Classic is an interesting twist on chess where you control your pieces during a "confrontation". This means that every time you are going to kill... well, any other piece, you have to pay a price. For example, the king is your main piece, and if you kill the king, you will have to pay the pawn cost. Pawns are ordinary pieces, but in the game they play the role of "small" pieces. A pawn is a chess piece that is located on the 8th, 9th and 10th squares from its original position. The king can move diagonally to any number of squares. A pawn can only move one space.
