Gold Card Tool V0.0.7

under the "auto" mode option, this switch will merge the selected cards to a single card called "merged", and save it. a new merge option has been added which allows the user to choose "merge" or "auto" mode. under the "auto" mode option, this switch will merge the selected cards to a single card called "merged", and save it. in the previous update, we introduced the ability to fuse cards to create stronger versions. however, while you can fuse your cards together, you cant spend flux to fuse cards that you already have in your inventory, except for forge cards. what that means is that if you already have a forge card that you want to fuse, youll have to go back to the forge and purchase another. however, it does give you the opportunity to fuse all of your forge cards together into a supercard. here are some examples of possible combinations: this update introduces a new ui for forge cards. not only is the ui a lot more streamlined and intuitive, but it also now includes a handy bar in the top left hand corner of the screen to display the amount of flux needed to purchase an upgrade. weve also added a filter on the forge cards ui to make it easier to browse all of the cards in your collection. with the release of v0.0.7, weve implemented a couple of new features on the forge card screen. the first is the ability to upgrade any forge card with a forge card or collection. you can upgrade a forge card with another forge card by selecting the card you want to upgrade, and pressing the green upgrade button. you can upgrade a forge card with a collection by selecting the card you want to upgrade, and pressing the green upgrade button.
